Survey on well-being of women and children

711. SHRI RAVULA CHANDRA SEKAR REDDY: Will the Minister of WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT be pleased to state:

(a) whether the results of the 'Survey on well-being of children and women' for 43 districts in 14 States of the country have been released;

(b) if so, the details thereof;

(c) whether the nation was committed to achieve the targets set out in the millennium developing goals, especially those concerning the well-being of women and children;

(d) if so, the progress achieved so far, State-wise;

(e) the funds allocated and utilized, State-wise; and

(f) the future action plan prepared in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE OF THE MINISTRY OF WOMEN AND CHILD DEVELOPMENT (SHRIMATI RENUKA CHOWDHURY): (a) Yes, sir.

(b) National Sample Survey Organization (NSSO) on the request of UNICEF conducted a survey on the well-being of children and women in the 43 selected districts in 14 States of India. A list of 43 districts is at Statement-I (See below). The Survey covered various aspects of well-being of children and women, namely, health, nutrition, education and protection, knowledge and perception on HIV/AIDS and also provided insight of the situation of service delivery in the villages of these districts. Significant disparities were observed for several indicators between the districts and within the districts, across different categories such as sex, age-group, religion, social group, mother's education level and standard of housing.

(c) Yes, Sir.

(d) Ministry of Statistics and Programme Implementation is the nodal Ministry for reporting on the Millennium Development Goals. They have prepared the country report in December 2005 which is available at the website of the Ministry. The table contained in the report indicating the progress towards achieving the millennium development goals in India is at Statement-II (See below).

(e) and (f) No separate funds are allocated for achieving the targets of International Commitments as the concerned Ministries, Departments and State Government are required to make necessary efforts in achieving the targets within the funds allocated to them by drawing up suitable plans.
